TUESDAY EVE., AUGUST 5, 1884.

Camp Meetings.

RUGGLES' CAMP GROUND, Aug. 2, 1884. The early prayer service was well attended, and conducted by Rev. E. C. Polard. Rev. Thomas G. Bowles, the speaker, was missing. The people never lose their zest in this meeting and this morning the attendance was good and the exercises very profitable.

Rev. H. C. Northcott preached at 10:30 a.m. from the text, "Behold I come." The congregation was serious and very close in attention. Rev. Thomas Harrison followed in an exhortation and prayer.

The arrivals are too numerous to mention in detail, but we from the West, Dr. R. D. Fisher, J. B. Fitch and wife, Dr. Wells and wife, T. B. Harrison and wife, Thomas Thomas and wife, Frank Stump and nieces, Rev. Sims of the M. E. Church, South, and Rev. Tate, of the Methodist Church, Judge Dye of Atlanta, of Saris, and Rev. P. H. Elright, of the M. E. Church.

There was a large congregation to hear Rev. Thomas Harrison at 3 p.m. His text was, "Behold I come." From the Kingdom of God, Mark 14:24. Rev. Harrison was himself this afternoon. The sermon was very pointed and clear, illustrated from various incidents taken from the scriptures with great skill. There was a profitable altar service of prayer after.

In the evening at 7 Miss Vonholz conducted a young people's meeting, and at 8 Rev. Thos. Harrison preached from Luke 12: 20. "Thou fool; this night thy soul shall be required of thee." It was an unusual enough for Saturday night. Great attention was given the earnest and sometimes eloquent appeals of the speaker. Quite a number came forward at the close and several were pleased. Every audience is crowded to begin, and the total is filled.

The Sabbath dawned with a threatening sky. The early service was good, led by Dr. N. W. Tracy. About fifty were present.

At 10:30 a.m. the experience meeting in the tabernacle was nearly full and the crowd kept on coming until 12 m., when there was a very large crowd of people on the ground. Rev. C. J. Howes conducted the meeting at 9 a.m., and many spoke of the great joy they have in Christ.

Brother Harrison preached at 10:30 a.m., to a crowd that filled the tabernacle and ran over around outside. We never saw the people more attentive and serious than text, "Behold I will in no wise cast out." The audience seemed deeply impressed and several were converted at the close.

Mr. Vonholz, who arrived to-day, conducted a meeting in the tabernacle at 2 p.m., and spoke with great force and pathos.

Rev. John R. Eads preached at 3 p.m. from Mark 8: 36. "What shall it profit a man if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" The sermon was brief as intended, but the points were clearly stated and ably defended. He was followed by Brother Harrison with a part of his experience, which thrilled the audience.

Miss Vonholz conducted a very profitable meeting in the tabernacle at 5 p.m., and Rev. Thomas Harrison preached a sermon of wonderful power at 8 p.m., from Genesis 6: 3. "My spirit shall not always strive." Quite a large number arose to speak, and the entire service was clearly stated and ably defended. He was followed by Brother Harrison with a part of his experience, which thrilled the audience.

PARKS' HILL, August 4, 1884.

Monday evening, Aug. 6, rain and sleet and the heat and humidity of the Sabbath day, every thing is quiet again. The prayer meeting at the auditorium this morning was led by Dr. West, of Tennessee. The love feast was led by Prof. Deems, of Carroll, the meeting was one of profound interest. Mr. Deems' labors have highly appreciated and we regret that we cannot have his services longer. We hope for grand results during the week. Next Wednesday will be the quarterly meeting service for Tolleshore circuit. The Lord's supper will be administered by Prof. Deems, Dr. West, Rev. C. J. Howes. Thursday will be prebition day, Dr. Tracy will be present, and other speakers will aid in the irrepressible rebellion against the despotic rule of the tyrant king abolitionists. Let all friends of freedom rally and strike a blow that will be felt far and wide in Lewis and surrounding counties. We return our thanks to the great congregations of yesterday and to-day for the excellent order maintained. No disturbance whatever, everybody seemed in dead humor with himself and everybody else.

THE STORM KING.

HAVOC OF SUNDAY'S STORMS IN THE CROPS RUINED - ELECTRICAL PHENOMENA.

WISCONSIN, Wis., Aug. 5.—Damage to crops in this vicinity by the wind, hail and rain storm Sunday is reported from all quarters. Unmeasured quantities of grain and fruit crop were ruined. Highways and bridges are washed out. Lightning did considerable damage to buildings near this village. It was the most disastrous storm that has visited this section this season.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 5.—At 10 o'clock morning occurred one of the most appalling electric storms witnessed for a long time.

For over an hour the rain fell in torrents, and the lightning was almost incessant.

The whole country was deluged.

Mud damage done was estimated to date, rain and wind. Oats were badly tangled, many acres being unfit for the reaper.

At half past two p.m., Dr. J. H. Young, of Birmingham, gave the following statement:

"The sun did not rise on Saturday morning."

No one was united with the church as yet.

Dr. Haygood preached to-night one of the most eloquent and truly brilliant sermons of the camp meeting.

Dr. West will preach today at 8 p.m., Dr. Deems, of New York, will arrive to-day.

The dining room is large and commodious and the accommodations are ample for the hundred or more persons fed at the hotel on Sunday. Some five thousand persons were supposed to be on the grounds last Sunday. The music under the direction of Prof. Stephens is splendid, as good as they have ever had.

Up to the present time two thousand persons of both sexes, suspected of conspiring against the peace of the Czar, have been expelled from Germany.

The famos mafre Maud S. has created a sensation by trotting a mile at Cleverland in 2:00 3/4, which is the fastest time on record.

BLACKMAIL.

A Bold Operator Walks Straight Into a Trap.

CHICAGO, Aug. 5.—A bold attempt at blackmail and conducted by Rev. E. C. Polard, Rev. Thomas G. Bowles, the speaker, was missing. The people never lose their zest in this meeting and this morning the attendance was good and the exercises very profitable.

Rev. H. C. Northcott preached at 10:30 a.m. from the text, "Behold I come." The congregation was serious and very close in attention. Rev. Thomas Harrison followed in an exhortation and prayer.

The sermon was very pointed and clear, illustrated from various incidents taken from the scriptures with great skill. There was a profitable altar service of prayer after.

Grant & Ward and Haas were given names of the case, and were to the plaintiff in the intended victim. The reporter says the top of the page was torn off so that the name of the person whom it was written could not be seen, but the subject matter was to the effect that he had written to the editor of the paper, and he did not want to be arrested. His wife, known to the reporter, was a young lady at the corner of Wabash avenue and Harrison street, and also that he had been visiting hours of assignment on north Fourth street, and that he had been writing to the paper to be pleased to meet him at Batchelder's restaurant on Saturday by 9 o'clock in the evening. "Slade" went to say that he wished to get out of town and would settle for $200.00. The editor did not know what he wanted, but he had written to the paper to keep his mouth closed he would not come, and the writer would know that he was willing to have his wife and daughter know all about it. He was asked, however, whether he would be willing to go to an apartment, and he said he was. A letter addressed did not want Slade to keep his mouth closed he would not come, and the writer had written to —, and would raise $200.00 by Saturday, sure. It is said that the writer was anxious to leave the town, as he had written to his wife and daughter to have her come to him. The writer had signed Dick. The second letter was also seen by the reporter, and the blank space is it was caused by the fact that the name of the supposed victim had been cut out. Bross was asked if he had any objection to the paper publishing his name, and he said he did not. The paper had a pension clerk, A. B. Hayward, who has a house on a platform thirty-one feet from the ground in the branches of a walnut tree. There he lives with plenty of light and air. He has modeled his front door after the Pueblo Indian plan. The house consists of a ladder which is drawn up after the tenant has ascended.

Grant & Ward Liabilities.

NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—Captain Elihu Spicer, Jr., left with the first of Grant & Ward, for safe keeping, twenty-six and a half barrels of perfume bound for the Gulf of Mexico & Rio Grande Company.

When the flask was broken, the receiver refused to deliver them to the paper.

Judge Van Brunt has rendered a decision ordering Rev. Davies to deliver up the bonds to Spicer.

Judge Van Brunt also granted an order confirming the report of Referee Cole upon the claim of Almon Goodwin against the firm for certificates of subscription to the capital stock of the Texas & Colorado Improvement Company of parts of $40,000.

Albert G. and John G. Spicer, carpenters and builders, have begun suits in the Supreme Court against James D. Fish, Ferdinand Ward, John H. Morris and a number of others, to recover for work upon the Booth's Theater building, the Mystic Apartment House and the State Bank. The first suit is for $22,471.13, the second for $10,380.37, and the third for $4,480.10.

AMERICAN ENGRAVINGS.

LONDON, Aug. 5.—A few years ago the United States could hardly engrave a wood block, but to-day the Republic has made a step forward.

Illustrated magazines are not to be found in English homes, but are welcome in English art circles. One of the most famous engravers of the age said to me a year ago, two of these magazines are better than any book I have ever seen.

There can be no question that the Americans have far surpassed all other nations in delicate engraving. The manual skill displayed in these wood-cuts is equal to musical instruments, and is accompanied by much originality—mean by as much critical understanding of graphic arts—that a portfolio of their best wood-cuts is most interesting. Not only do they understand engraving thoroughly, but they have best prints in the world, and they give an amount of care and thought to their printing which would be thought uncommercial elsewhere.

JUDGE COLE and the county officials were notified Monday afternoon, that a mob of negroes had been organized at Mayslick and would visit Maysville that night for the purpose of taking John Galvin, who, last week, killed Tobias Hawking, colored, out of the jail and lynching him. The county officers very prudently arranged to repel any force that might appear for any lawless pur- pose, and had it come, it would have met with a very warm reception. A posse of determined men guarded the jail, and a scouting party composed of Deputy Sheriff Dan Perrin and Messrs. James Heflin and W. B. Dawson patrolled the road until an hour later in the morning. There was no demonstration during the night. Criminals are promptly seized by this county and there is, therefore, no shadow of an excuse for violent proceedings by a mob. JUDGE COLE and the county officials were notified Monday afternoon, that a mob of negroes had been organized at Mayslick and would visit Maysville that night for the purpose of taking John Galvin, who, last week, killed Tobias Hawking, colored, out of the jail and lynching him. The county officers very prudently arranged to repel any force that might appear for any lawless pur- pose, and had it come, it would have met with a very warm reception. A posse of determined men guarded the jail, and a scouting party composed of Deputy Sheriff Dan Perrin and Messrs. James Heflin and W. B. Dawson patrolled the road until an hour later in the morning. There was no demonstration during the night. Criminals are promptly seized by this county and there is, therefore, no shadow of an excuse for violent proceedings by a mob.
